Beautiful people

Beautiful music

Beautiful evening

Twenty years from now

you will be more disappointed

by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did.

So throw of the bow lines.

Sail away from the safe harbor.

Catch the trade winds in your sails.

Explore. Dream.

It's time to have the time of your life.

DDR Club is an opportunity for both those who are already fans of the game and newbies to come together to practice, improve their skills, exercise, and have fun. From creating our own songs, to dancing on the infamous electronic pad, to taking "field trips" to the arcade and using the actual DDR machines there, to competing in tournaments and laughing as we fail miserably, the club is a great place for both long time fans of the dancing game and new kids who are helped by those with experience. The club has evolved so much from its beginning. We hope it will continue to do so.

Dance Dance Revolution

Dan,

Through hard work and perseverance, you have accomplished goals, perhaps once thought unobtainable. We are more than proud. To see the fine man you have become realizes our dreams as well. Your pride in accomplishments gained through fair play and integrity is apparent. Your confidence to stand your ground and hold to your ideals shows the type of person you are and that you will someday make a difference in the world. You have all our love, you have more than earned our respect.

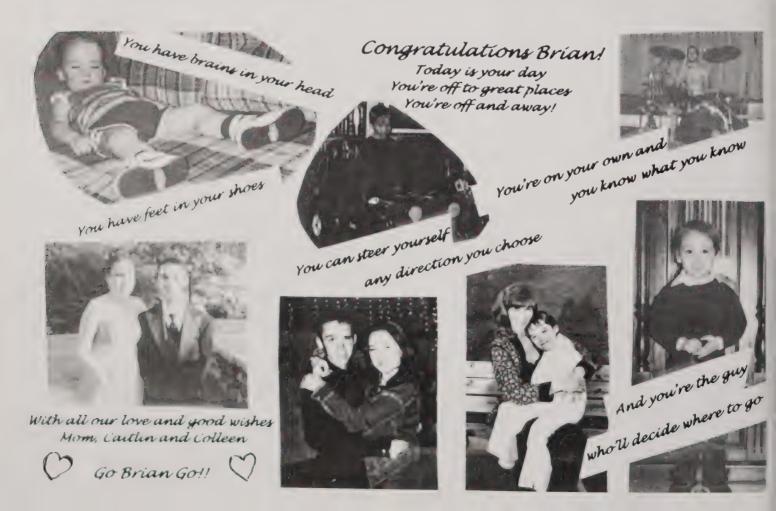

Love, Mum, Dad and Bryan.

Eighteen years ago God gave you to me I was young and scared, unsure of how it would be I looked in your eyes so innocent and pure And knew we'd be fine and we're that and more I watched you grow, learn and play That award winning smile always there to stay When I look back on the days I wouldn't change one I'm so thankful that I've been blessed with the most perfect son You're a joker and a schmoozer, yet compassionate and kind A better best friend in this world I never could find Now comes the time for me to let go How proud of you I am these words could never show You've chosen a path of which deserves great honor But one that might just be the hardest for a mother Your country is lucky that I'm willing to share A great asset to the armed forces no one can compare Wherever life leads you whatever path you take Wherever you go whatever choices you make I'm right by your side Pat, my soulmate and best friend Thank you for being you stay true til the end.

We love you so much our beautiful daughter. Love Mom and Dad

On January 23, 1986, we were blessed with a ten pound bundle of joy. You filled our lives with laughter and joy. Your unique personality is loved by so many friends and family. We wish for you wisdom, strength and courage to follow your dreams and to be successful in what you choose to do in your life. May your life experiences be rewarding for you and for all the lives you will touch. We love you. Mom, Dad & Alicia

Our Daughter Jennifer

A special little girl God gave to us one day, You were placed in our arms for us to lead your way.

The love we had for you right from the very start, Has grown so much and now it completely fills our hearts.

Our lives have had some laughter, We've had our share of tears, But God has given each their place, With the passing of the years.

You stand before us now and it's hard to understand, How God has turned our little girl into a fine young woman.

But this one thing remember as you open each new door.
That as much as we do love you, Jennifer, God still loves you more.

With all our love, We are so proud of γου. Love, Mom, Dad & PJ

Congratulations to a wonderful daughter! We are so proud of your hard work and all your accomplishments. You are a smart, independent, and beautiful person who can do anything she wants to. May you always be happy and know that we are here for you if you need us. Love Always, Mom and Dad

Words escape me at this moment That seems like the end Yet it is only the beginning When friendships are close And dreams for You were there for me. Tears fill me with memories of both Good and bad Some nearly forgotten yet all dear To the heart You were there for me. in times of trouble And in times of thanks You stood by my side And held me up. Through your ever-patient ears To your comforting hugs You were there for me. From the first day when I saw you And knew that you would Love me for who I was You were there for me. And until the day when we Are old and gray I will always know that You are there for me.

We have watched you grow and are so proud of who you are.

You are someone who is...

poised and graceful

ready to run to her next adventure

eager to learn and climb to new hieghts ready and prepared to meet challenges head on caring and sharing

We love you and know that whatever path you take it will lead to great things. Just remember that you have us walking the path with you Love,

Dear Ien. It seems like only yesterday that our beautiful little girl came into our lives. It's hard to believe that we are now celebrating your high school graduation. We have so many wonderful memories of your years growing up, dancing to "one little star", your first communion, how beautiful and happy you were, your running throughout middle and high school, what a wonderful athlete you have become. You have always proven to be a dedicated student, athlete, daughter, sister, and friend, we couldn't be more proud of you. Now you have your future ahead of you to do anything and everything you wish. You have a good and loving heart, good values and a strong desire to do what is right, all of which will help you have a bright, fulfilling future that we look forward to sharing with you. Remember always to continue to love, be caring and kind, be honest, and help others and your life will always be rich.

We love you so much; you will always be our beautiful, smiling "Penny".
Congratulations!
Love Mom, Dad, Scott, and Sadie

Tîm,

We look back with pride and awe at the ways you've grown and at the person you are today. We look forward with anticipation to see who you will choose to become! Always enjoy those "links to your childhood", remember to keep your priorities, and know that your family is always behind you.

Cassie, Mom always told us that your sister will always be your best friend...and she is right. I love you so much and I will miss you a ton when you are at college.

Your accomplishments are many
You met academic and athletic success
To have you for a daughter
Is just the very best.

From cartwheels on the soccer field

To pirouettes down grocery aisles

It should be no surprise

What your heart desires.

Dancing your way through the years
Dressed in all that glitters
You became a fine young lady
And a much loved baby sitter.

You spend much time jumping and leaping But still love books; you're an avid reader And with that awesome smile you are Quite a cheerful leader.

And so Christine, our dancing queen
Follow your heart, follow your dream
Face challenges with your opecial pizzazz
We're proud of you, we love you...
And all that jazz!

good Luck Christine Love, Mom and Dad Michael and Diane

Dear Jen,

David:

Our lives have been better because you have been a part of them. Being with you as you have grown from an infant into a fine young man has been an amazing and rewarding experience for all of us. We are proud of what you have accomplished and excited about what you can achieve in the future.

As you move on to college and follow your dreams, remember that your life will be defined by the journey, not the destination. Work hard, laugh often, and most of all, be kind to those you meet along the way.

We love you always,

Mom and Dad

David,

Watching you grow from our little boy to a young man has been one of the greatest experiences a parent can know. May your future be filled with the same love and joy you've given us.

We love you and wish you the very best of everything that life has to offer you. Love, Mom & Dad PJ. Best wishes to a great little brother. Love, Nicole

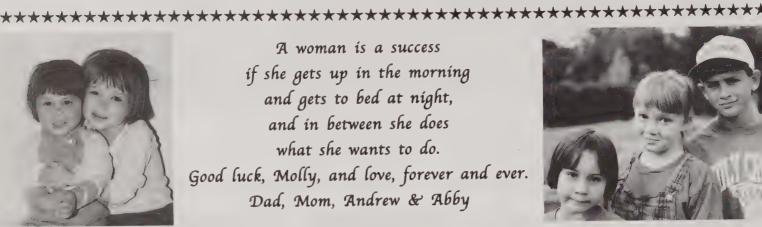

Congratulations for twelve years of hard school work. In those twelve years you have gone from a small boy studying hard, joined the National Honor Society, run track, done soccer and played basketball. You have become a great young man. I want you to know that you have made me the happiest father in this land. I Love You more than anything in the? You know what I mean. Love Dad

CHRISTINA'S YEARS

I know the years go by so quickly. I seen her grow into a beautiful young lady. everything I ever dream of in a daughter. I love you.

Every child has a section of their parents heart that only they can fill. Tina has more than filled her section, The serves as my inspiration and motivation that anything in life is possible. Watching her grow every single day is a pleasure. It gives me great pride in the young lady she has become and great joy in the way she is.

Love Daddy.

Angela,

You have filled our lives with love and laughter. You've worked hard and accomplished so much in a short period of time. We are so proud of you. So, wherever life takes you always remember that we love you and are with you every step of the way.

Our heartfelt wish for you as you reach this next milestone in your life is simple:

Wish upon a star and follow your dreams no matter where they lead you. Reach for the highest and brightest of stars. Never settle for less than you deserve and remember to be the very best you can be.

We know it in our hearts that all of your hopes and dreams for the future will come true. Because waiting for you at the end of this road is your pot of gold and your very own special rainbow.

Love always, Mom, Dad, P.J. and Daniel

Jack,
Thanks for always being there for me.

Watching you guys graduate from high school is an event that always seemed so far away. We've been through so much in the past four years, I don't know what life would be like without any single one of you. Soon, we'll all go our own ways and make new lives, but I know we'll always be in each other's hearts. Good luck with all of your goals and dreams. You guys are the greatest friends in the world. Stay in touch, remember the good times we've had.

I love you all so much. Congrats! Love Heather

When you were born, we didn't know how soon you'd grow into the son you are today. We looked away for just a moment, so it seemed - as if we dreamed our little-boy years, and then awake - time played a joke on us. The next thing that we knew, you became You, and we became the parents of a son we love far more than words can ever say. Remember follow your dreams and work hard to achieve your goals, nothing is impossible.

Thanks for the memories

This small amount of space couldn't do justice to write about Jen, but I'll do my best to fit some things in. Jennifer, I choose your name with utmost love and care. God gave me the most marvelous gift by bringing you into my life. You have always been a caring and loving daughter, as well as a wonderful sister. You never gave me any problems, as you were always so sincere and always spoke your mind. You were always helpful, especially when things got tough. I love you very much and will always be there for you. Love, Mamae

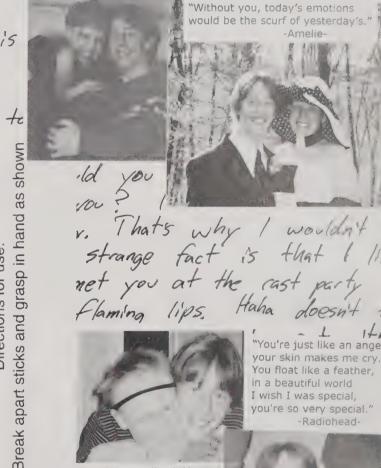

Jen, I couldn't ask for a better sister or best friend. We may not always agree on everything but nothing would be as good as it is without you. I will always be there for you and you are certainly what you've made yourself to be. I love you. Love, Jessica

Melissa, First, I want to congratulate you on all of your achievements during these high school years. For the past four years, we've grown together to become the individuals we are today. You've taught me so many things about how to make myself a better person and been there for me, no questions asked. So many great memories we've shared, it would take forever to list them all. I look forward to the future memories and the time we will spend together. I love you, Melissa, and always will. Con affeto. Mike

Theresa...The day you were born, we were so proud. As the years went by, we realized how special you are as a daughter and a person. We know you'll succeed in everything you choose. Congratulations to you and the Class of 2004. With all our love, Mom, Dad, Anthony and Christopher

Dear Amanda,

We always want you to know how much you mean to us. Even though we struggled through some years, we never gave up. I always thank God for that.

Remember we are always here to talk with you, to encourage you and most of all to support you!

We are very proud of how you have grown up into a responsible caring person. You always help everyone whenever you can.

So, now be good to yourself as you are to everyone else. Congratulations on your high school graduation! We are very proud of you. With lots of love,

Mom, Dad & Danny

Jennie, You made it! Congratulations on everything you have accomplished. I'll miss you so much, but you know I'll be at P.C. visiting! Thank you for always being there and for being able to get through anything, even though there were times we wanted to "cut ties" From coaching to car rides, good time and bad, we've been through it all. You'll always be my cheetah sister!

Love, Kristina

To Our Daughter Shawna.

On July 1, 1986 at 9:32 pm you entered this world with a smile on your face. Another girl!

"My name is Shawna", you introduced yourself at a tender age of 2 to anyone you met.

You are a loving daughter, a special sister, a thoughtful granddaughter and a wonderful niece.

We wish you the best of everything. Love You Forever.

Mom & Dad

To My Niece .

You have always been a ray of sunshine for me in this sometimes cloudy world. You are a beautiful, sensitive, caring, talented and sweet girl and I'm proud to have you as my niece. I wish you all the success and happiness you deserve. I'll always be there for you, no matter what. Be all that you can be and don't settle for less!

With all my love.

Auntie

To My Sister.

As sisters, we have been through a lot together. Cheering camps, won many (and lost a few) softball games together and even been in the same sewing class. Although I may have complained about being with you all the time, I really miss having you around. You are the only friend that has ever mattered to me.

I truly think that you are an intelligent, young woman that has grown dramatically over these past four years. No matter where you go to college, or what you become, you will always be a great person. Don't ever change that I know you will succeed at anything you put your mind to and you'll get whatever you want, as long as you want it bad enough.

I have to say Shawna; you are one of a kind! I love you and I wish you the best. - Deanna

Shawna - You're a cool sister. - Love, James.

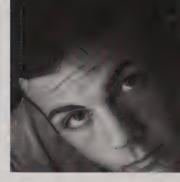

To My Granddaughter,
I remember when I used to take you for walks in the carriage. I can't believe you are all grown up. I love you so much and I hope you are always happy!
Love and hugs from Grandma

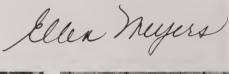

To the class of 2004,

Thank you for making the past four years challenging, fun, and interesting, and for being my teacher. I hope what we have shared and what you have learned from me has enriched your life as much as you have enriched mine. I wish you great success, much happiness and that all your wishes come true.

SHS Colonial Yearbook 2004

This is Volume XLV, forty-five on the modern list! Cost has remained unchanged since 2000, still $30. But, the 2000 edition was 240 pages. "2004" you can see is 304 pages, an increase of more than 25%! Also, there is twice as much color (check out the signature mid-book). 900 books have been ordered from Publisher Jostens (Company Representative is Kevin Simoneau). Although this is 150 books more than in 2000, during the same time our school community has grown more than proportionately: 2000 Seniors (219); 2004 Seniors (270). It is "rumored" that the incoming Class of 2008 numbers over 360! Basic font is Garamond.

Spring "Extras" are included in above Year-book price. Look for Spring Sports; Musical; the huge scholarship-dinner event in memory of Danielle Simas, and also this year Greg Lusignan and Mr. Cormier; and Senior Week!

The focus of the 2004 Yearbook is "In the Halls...Beyond the Walls". The former is obvious. The latter not so until you remember that some of what happens at SHS has its roots in earlier experiences and grades, and, that while here for four years, there is much (like Sports, Music, Service Learning) that is as likely to occur in larger communities. The SHS image, perception, and pride is a combination of all that SHS students bring with them as well as what they accomplish while here.

Special thanks to those who supported our efforts: Mrs. Krause, Mr. Clough, Mrs. Early, Mrs. Cerrone, Mrs. Naumiec, Mr. Cornacchioli, Mr. O'Connell, Ms. Wilson, Senior Advisors Mrs. Black, Mrs. Estephan, Mrs. DeFalco, Senior Administrator Mrs. Meyers.
